WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1894.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1904.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

WE PAY, BUT LET NO ONE ELSE.

We knock.
We boast.
We brag.
We claim.
We love.
The most.
And yet
We kick.
And find
Up quick
When anyone
Returns
The trick.

—Columbian Record.

POSITIVELY

Copy for "changes" in advertisements MUST be sent in before 2 o'clock on the previous day.

If you have an item of news, please call on The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Saving money buying Pianos from Gerbrich.

Miss Johnson's Business School is open Monday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Some three hundred thousand brick were washed off by the heavy rain at the big tobacco factory last afternoon.

Every lady should have one of our fine "Leather" Hand Bags, entirely new and at reduced prices. Call and see them. Also fine line of Card Cases and Cigar Cases.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Sunday the congregation of the Christian Church will take a vote on calling Rev. R. E. Moss for another year. It is hoped the congregation will be a large one and the vote unanimous for retaining this popular young Minister.

Mr. W. L. Stickley, whose term as Superintendent of the Sunday-school of the Second M. E. Church, South, expired last Sunday, will serve refreshments to the pupils and officers of the school tonight from 7 to 10 in the Churchyard in East Second street near Wood.

Miss Estella Mae Nash, a High School graduate, has been secured to teach at Kay's School-house in the county. Miss Nash is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nash of East Second street, and that she will prove her worth as a teacher in a foregone conclusion.

In behalf of myself and remaining members of the family, I desire to return sincere thanks to the kind friends and to the Lodge members who were so self-sacrificing in their attention to my father, the late Captain Jacob Miller.

J. L. MILLER.

In the published report yesterday of attendance at the Public Schools, the Seventh and Eighth Grades, taught in the High School Building by Misses Brosheers and Waller respectively, were omitted. There were 23 in the former and 22 in the latter. These, added to the 501 given, bring the total attendance up to 546.

YOUNG.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young have been rejoicing since yesterday noon over the arrival of a fine son at their home in January street. This is the first born and of course they are of the opinion that this particular boy is the finest in the land. All young married people think the same, however.

TYPES WENT WRONG

As They Generally Do When They're Started That Way

A Knessa Editor is having trouble of his own. In preparing the obituary of an old resident and Civil War Veteran, the Editor wrote: "The battle-scarred veteran."

After the edition had been run off it was discovered that the line read, "The battle-scarred Veteran."

The following week the Editor wrote a correction, but somehow the compositor failed to space properly and it read, "The battle-scarred Vet ran."

Almost beyond himself with chagrin, he fired the compositor, office devil and proof-reader, and the following week made the correction himself. It read, "The battle-scarred Veteran."

The Editor now occupies a padded cell, and the relatives of the deceased soldier are suing for libel.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bad job get into our press. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

DECIDED NUISANCE

The Foul-Smelling Filth Catcher on the Pretty Esplanade

The bowl, originally intended to catch and retain the spray of water spouting from the fountain, but now used as a catch basin and dumpage for all kinds of filth, has evidently ceased to be either useful or ornamental.

In its present condition it is a nuisance and at times a stench in the nostrils of pedestrians who pass along the Esplanade.

It would be a benefaction if the Board of Health—if there be one—or the Street Commissioner or the Chief of Police or whoever has the authority, would take upon his or their self the responsibility of having it cleaned of the foul smelling accumulations.

It is customary with the City Dads to refer the matter and it generally dies of old age before action is taken in the matter, but in this instance it would be wisdom to have the matter attended to at once and thereby remove all danger of an epidemic of some kind.

DEMURRERS OVERRULED

Judge Cochran Acts in Three Damage Cases Against C. and O.

In the Federal Court at Covington yesterday Judge A. M. J. Cochran handed down three orders in respect to damage suits against the C. and O. Railway Company.

In the case of Gilbert J. Lewis the Company's demurrer to the petition on the ground that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, the Court sustained the demurrer.

Lewis was suing for $5,000 damages because of the loss of his left leg, which was cut off by a freight train he had boarded to ride to his place of work near Maysville.

In the case of Henrietta Davis's Administrator, the Court overruled the Company's demurrer. The action is for recovery of $25,000 damages for the killing of Mrs. Davis by a freight train while she was crossing the track between her house and garden in Lewis county.

The demurrer of the Company to a petition by the widow of Andrew Swice for $25,000 damages against the Company was also overruled. Mrs. Swice's husband was employed by the Company at its coal docks at Maysville and he was knocked off an elevated track by a train and in falling his neck was broken, causing his death.

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Some good farms yet for sale. JOHN DULEY.

Stringent rules have been adopted by the Kentucky State Board of Health, requiring all physicians coming from other states to take an examination before practicing in Kentucky; limiting medical colleges to cities of 50,000 population or over; prohibiting any medical college from having more than one school term a year, and requiring all students who intend to enter medical college to take a preliminary examination.

SCHOOL FOUNDER DEAD

Rev. L. B. Piersal, Father of Riverside Seminary, Vanceburg

The Rev. L. B. Piersal, a superannuated Minister of the M. E. Conference, died at his home in Bellevue.

Two sons, Prof. A. C. Piersal, Dean of the Ohio Wesleyan University, and E. S. Piersal, survive him.

Rev. Piersal founded the Riverside Seminary in Vanceburg and was a classmate of the late President William McKinley at Allegheny College.

THE STORE WITH PLENTY OF LIGHT.

An unusual condition has existed up the Monongahela river during the last thirty days. The fog has been so heavy at night that it resembled rainfall. This has been common heretofore for a day or two at a time, but rivermen of long experience say they never knew it to last more than three days. It was necessary for passengers on the packets to raise umbrellas while sitting on the deck.
